The image features a vertical composition of six distinct marble patterns, each occupying an equal-width strip. From left to right, the patterns are: 1) A light cream marble with subtle grey veining. 2) A light grey marble with thin, dark grey veins. 3) A white marble with prominent, dark grey veins. 4) A solid, light beige or cream-colored surface. 5) A white marble with large, irregular, light brown and tan patches. 6) A dark, almost black marble with prominent, bright white and light grey veins. The word "NEW" is printed in a white, bold, sans-serif font, positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image, specifically over the dark marble strip. A thin, horizontal grey line is placed directly beneath the text.
